MCKINLEY'S OUTING

President Gets Very Little Rest on His Present Trip.

THE CHURCH AT HOLYOKE

Where the President Attended Divine Services Crowded—Dr. Reed Makes No Reference to National Affairs. Visit to Mount Holyoke College. Loving Cup Given Mrs. McKinley.

Holyoke, Mass., June 19.—Sunday for the president was anything but the day of rest that was hoped for. The continual crowding of the curious citizens, the immense jam at the church in the morning and later in the day an unexpected and totally unprepared for reception in connection with the baccalaureate exercises at Mount Holyoke college, made the day long and tiresome for all. The president was not content with going once to church, but went twice, leaving Mrs. McKinley in the hands of her lady friends on each occasion.

The president and his entire party were up bright and early. A large crowd congregated about the residence of William Whiting, where the distinguished guests are being entertained, and by the time the party was ready for the short walk of two blocks to the church the streets were filled with people.

It was an orderly, decorous crowd and hardly a word was spoken by them during the entire journey. At the Second Congregational church, which the Whittings attend, a much larger crowd had assembled and it was only by deviating and entering a side door that admission was gained. Every seat was occupied and many extra chairs and settees. The congregation rose respectfully as the president entered and remained standing until he sat down.

Rev. Dr. Edwin Reed, pastor of the church, delivered the sermon. The service was in no way out of the ordinary, except for an enlarged choir and additional music. No reference was made to the presence of the presidential party in any way, and nothing of national affairs was touched upon in the sermon. Dr. Reed preached from the text, Romans 1-6, and delivered an interesting discourse upon the duties of stewardship. He detailed what he considered to be the duty of the individual in the use of wealth, education and religion, and spoke of the duty of the nation in the work of building up and raising to a higher plane, spiritually and mentally, the people in our far away possessions.

The president was an attentive listener and joined heartily in the singing of "America" at the close of the service. Immediately after the return to the Whiting residence lunch was served, after which the party, including all the ladies, were taken over the trolley line to South Hadley to attend the baccalaureate exercises at the chapel of Mount Holyoke college. This was the first time President McKinley had been to South Hadley, which is the real destination of the trip, and so made his first bow to the little college fraternity, where tomorrow he is to share honors with Governor Roger Wolcott and deliver the degrees to the graduating class of which his niece, Miss Grace McKinley, is a member.

After the president had been introduced by Mrs. E. S. Mead, the president of the college, he entered the chapel. Rev. Dr. Jacobus then delivered his baccalaureate sermon. The reception which awaited the visitors as they alighted and entered the car was so spontaneous and of such a friendly and cordial nature that at Mrs. McKinley's request the president ordered the car to delay its departure for a few moments while he shook the hands of the people who clustered about the window where the couple were seated. Mr. McKinley leaned from the car window and shook hands with the people and spoke a few words of greeting to each.

The programme for today comprised a journey to Northampton, where the president participated in a parade and the ivy exercises at Smith college.

At noon Bethesda circle, order of the Eastern Star, of which organization Mrs. McKinley is a member, presented her a handsome loving cup at the residence of Captain Williams.

This afternoon a trip to the top of Mount Tom was made, where luncheon was served. Tonight the party will go to South Hadley to attend the performance of "A Midsummer Night's Dream" by the seniors of Mount Holyoke college.

JONES' MAIL

Mayor of Toledo Overwhelmed With Appeals For Aid.

Toledo, June 19.—Mayor Jones has issued an open letter in answer to several thousand people all over the country who have made appeals to him for personal aid. Mr. Jones' mail since his campaign for mayor has been enormous keeping a force of clerks busy opening and sorting. Many of these letters have been appeals for personal help in every conceivable form. Today a letter is given out by Mr. Jones, stating that while he is an advocate of the theory of the brotherhood of man it is impossible to give these people the assistance desired, or find time to write an answer to each.

BOTH FATALLY INJURED

Heroic Sectionhand Attempts to Save a Lady Bicyclist's Life.

Cleveland, June 19.—Blaze Patrio, a railroad sectionhand, proved himself a hero yesterday and was fatally injured in an attempt to save a woman from death. Mrs. Jennie Price was riding a wheel across the Lake Shore tracks at the entrance to Gordon park and fell in front of an approaching train. Patrio, who had been detailed to assist the flagman at the crossing, ran to Mrs. Price's assistance, but both he and the woman were run down. Mrs. Price lost a leg and an arm and suffered a fracture of the skull, while her rescuer was struck by the pilot of the engine and was picked up insensible from a bad wound in the head. The woman retained consciousness, but the physicians say both will die.

GOV. GEN. BROOKE'S

Libel Suit Against El Reconcentrado Excites Interest In Cuba.

WAS ONLY BY ACCIDENT

That Cuban Soldiers Heard That the United States Was Willing to Pay Them—They Say It Is the First Time Any Government Ever Kept Its Promise With Them.

Havana, June 19.—The libel action which Governor General Brooke has ordered begun against El Reconcentrado is exciting general interest, for it is regarded as a test case under the recent decree.

The possibility that General Freyre Andrade, president of the late military assembly, may be named as one of the judges of appeal has caused considerable agitation among the Cubans, who regard him as decidedly erratic. At the time of the Garcia funeral his attitude toward General Brooke, whom he charged with endeavoring by every possible means to provoke the Cubans, aroused considerable animosity among the latter. More than this, at all the meetings of the assembly he bitterly denounced the Americans, and at all subsequent gatherings of Cubans who has put in an appearance he has followed the same course. His selection for a judgeship would be disapproved by many, not only for such considerations as the foregoing, but because he is not old enough or sufficiently experienced to fill the position effectively.

The work of disbursing the American gratuity to the Cuban troops continues at Cardenas, Remedios, Pinar del Rio and Puerto Principe. Colonel Moale is in charge at the last named point. The Cubans are flocking to the distributing centers, asserting that it was only by accident that they heard they were to receive American money. The palpable evidence of fraud in making up the lists is arousing popular indignation throughout the island, and the evident desire of the Americans to carry out their pledges excites general admiration. The Cubans say this is the first time in their history when a government promise has been kept and that they have never before experienced such considerate treatment from government representatives.

The papers that represent the members of the former military assembly continue their disparaging allusions to Senor Quesada, the special representative of Cuba in Washington. They characterize the appointment as a "direct slap in the face" from President McKinley. The Gomez party, on the other hand, says that the president's choice in this matter is another "illustration of his excellent judgment." They regard Senor Quesada as a man devoted to the best interests of Cuba, and consider this appointment places in Washington "a man who will tell the truth and save the expense of sending commissions there," which was the usual device of the military assembly.

JOINT MONUMENT

British and American Officers of Warships Will Erect One In Samoa.

Vancouver, B. C., June 19.—Australian advisers say that the officers of the British and American warships, who have been fraternizing during the recent trouble in Samoa, have decided to erect a joint monument to the memory of the English speaking slain in the various engagements. It is intended to erect a granite monument with the names of the British engraved on one panel and the Americans on the other, surmounting the roll of the killed with the names of the British and American flags entwined. Japanese are opposing Britishers from the pearl shell industry on Thursday island.

F. B. Hogue, brother of the New South Wales minister of public instruction, has returned to Sydney after a 10-years absence in San Francisco. Mr. Hogue is satisfied that American trade with Australia is steadily increasing. The demand for United States goods is yearly growing greater. At present there is only a small demand in America for Australian products.

More Bloodshed Expected.

London, Ky., June 19.—A messenger just from Manchester says all is quiet there. Judge Eversole will not go to Hayden today to open court owing to the danger in passing through Clay county. Said and Lee Baker, friends of the Whites and Howards, passed through here last night, going back home to fight it out if necessary. The quiet at Manchester is believed to be that which precedes a storm. More bloodshed is the opinion of the best informed men.

Admiral Sampson In Good Health.

Boston, June 19.—The statements published to the effect that Admiral Sampson was ill and would retire from the command of the North Atlantic squadron, have been authoritatively denied by an officer of his staff as wholly unfounded. On the contrary, Admiral Sampson is now in better health than he has been at any time since or during the war, and has no intention of giving up his command.

MAYOR OF ATLANTA

His Impeachment Demanded From a Pulpit—Congregation Cheered.

Atlanta, June 19.—In a sensational sermon last night Dr. L. G. Broughton, pastor of the Baptist Tabernacle, called upon the city council to impeach James G. Woodward, mayor of Atlanta. Dr. Broughton said the "chief executive was a confessed gambler, a libertine, a sot and a disgrace to the city." At these words the audience of about 2,000 people cheered.

In the course of his remarks, Dr. Broughton said: "When the mayor was a member of an important committee to go to Washington on the matter of federal prison site he was drunk most of the time, and there were other things that occurred in connection with it that I hesitate to mention at once. If the members of the city council do not impeach him I shall take steps myself. No such man has a right to be mayor of this city. The situation is indecent and disgraceful."

They only had time for breakfast and were driven to the imperial palace, where instant admission was granted them by the kaiser himself, who was waiting for them. They had a further audience with his majesty yesterday and were expected to leave Berlin on their return to The Hague last night."

FRENCH CABINET CRISIS

Pierre Waldeck-Rousseau Experiencing Difficulty In His Task.

Paris, June 19.—President Loubet received in audience yesterday M. Cassimir-Perier, former president of France, and consulted with him regarding the ministerial crisis. After the interview terminated M. Loubet received Senator Pierre Waldeck-Rousseau. The latter, it is understood, has made his acceptance of the task of forming a cabinet conditional upon the co-operation of M. Cassimir-Perier and certain sections of the chamber of deputies which he hopes to secure. He has consulted with several statesmen and has had a very long conference with M. Lepine, former prefect of police of Paris.

M. Waldeck-Rousseau is meeting with considerable difficulty, but he appears determined. He will confer with M. Loubet again, probably today, before submitting a draft list of colleagues.

Of the three former premiers whom he has consulted Maurice Rouvier, who was president of the council of ministers and minister of finance in 1887, alone consented to take a portfolio.

Felix Melline informed him that he failed to see how his appointment as premier would bring about a solution of the crisis.

Honri Brisson contented himself with promising support and expressing good wishes.

M. Waldeck-Rousseau waited upon M. Cassimir-Perier and earnestly endeavored to induce him to accept the portfolio of war, on the ground that his presence at the ministry of war would simplify the difficulties of the situation. Thereupon M. Cassimir-Perier consulted with the president, who pointed out to him that he would be able to exercise more authority than anyone else over the generals in destroying the germs of irritation. Cassimir-Perier replied that he had definitely withdrawn from politics, but nevertheless would undertake to consider the matter.

MISSIONARIES

Murdered In China While Under an Escort For Protection.

Hong-Kong, June 19.—It has developed that the Rev. H. S. Phillips, Mrs. Phillips and Mrs. Sears, missionaries of the Church Missionary society, who with three native converts were recently killed by rioters in the province of Ngan-Hwei, had sought protection of the Yamen at Kien-Yang. The Yamen, not being strong enough to protect them, sent the party under escort to Kien Ning Fu, but the missionaries were murdered on the way there. It is reported that the natives destroyed also the church, parsonage and hospital at Kien Ning Fu.

AMERICAN CATTLE

Can Now Be Imported Into Belgium Under the Decree of 1897.

Washington, June 19.—Special plenipotentiary Kasson has just received an authenticated copy from Belgium of the decree recently enacted by the Belgian government raising the prohibition on the importation into Belgium of American meat cattle. This will be formally published at once for the information of the meat interests in this country. The decree recites the preceding decrees prohibiting importation of cattle from America and the opinion of the veterinarians and announces that American meat cattle and swine can now be imported into Belgium under the terms of the decree of 1897 prescribing the places where they may be landed and slaughtered.

AT MANILA

Manila, June 19.—United States transport Sherman, which sailed from San Francisco, May 24 with 1,800 men and 75 officers under command of Brigadier General Fred D. Grant, has arrived here after a smooth voyage. One private died after the transport's arrival.

Miners' Temporary Advantage. —Pittsburg, Kan., June 19.—The striking union coal miners appear to have temporarily stopped the importation of southern negroes by the mine operators. The hearing of the injunction cases brought by the strikers in the state court has been postponed by Judge Skidmore until June 26, temporarily interrupting the flow of negroes.

Cars Were Run.

Cleveland, June 19.—There were no new developments in the strike of the street railway men yesterday, principally for the reason that the company made no attempt to operate cars, except on the Euclid avenue line. The police still afforded ample protection and the cars were run on schedule time.

Telephone No. 42

MONDAY, JUNE 19, 1899.

The democratic primaries in Kentucky last week were unusually lively.

PRESIDENT MCKINLEY is taking a few weeks rest and recreation in Massachusetts.

The successor of the late Congressman Dingley will be elected today. He will be a republican of course.

The condition of the weather apparently has little to do with the size of the Sunday excursion. If the rates are low there will be enough along the line to make up a train load most any Sunday whether it be hot or cold.

SOME rabid democratic papers have taken exceptions because the republican press has had some complimentary things to say about the late Congressman Bland. Just as if a republican paper has no right to speak kindly of a dead democrat.

A FOURTH district exchange says that Hon. S. A. Barnes, of this city is a probable candidate for congress. Now we are not sure that our contemporary knows but if Barnes should be a candidate the other fellows better build their fences good and strong, and build them early, too. If he goes into the race he will go in to win.

RAILROAD RUMBLINGS.

L. S. Peter, of the L. S. line was here today.

"Pap" Jones the veteran expressman, is thought to be slightly better today.

E. F. Harmon, of the Air Line was in the city today accompanied by his wife.

O. B. Sappington of the J., M. & I., sold 175 excursion tickets to Indianapolis Sunday.

CHURCH NOTES.

Rev. C. Wenschel who preached at the German M. E. church on White Creek Sunday returned to Cincinnati today.

Rev. R. S. Katterhenry, of the German M. E. church on White Creek was here today.

The ministers of the German Lutheran churches of Jackson and Bartholomew counties held a conference in Seymour today.

Mrs. Mary E. Wolf, of the Jeffersonville Deaconess hospital, addressed the church people of Surprise and Pleasant Grove Sunday.

Board of Review.

The county board of review met at Brownstown today for a thirty days session. It is anticipated that the session will be a busy one as all the real estate in the county was appraised this year. In Hamilton township there is much complaint that the difference between the assessments of the bottom land and the hill land is entirely too great and an attempt will be made to have the board make some changes.

Story of a Slave.

To be bound hand and foot for years by the chains of disease is the worst form of slavery. George D. Williams, of Manchester, Mich., tells how such a slave was made free. He says: "My wife has been so helpless for five years that she could not turn over in bed alone. After using two bottles of Electric Bitters, she is wonderfully improved and able to do her own work." This supreme remedy for female diseases quickly cures nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, headache, backache, fainting and dizzy spells. This miracle working medicine is a godsend to weak, sickly, run down people. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50 cents. Sold by W. F. Peter, druggist.

Unusual Baggage.

Officers of the L. E. & St. L. railroad company are having some trouble over the question of whether a coffin may be regarded as an article of baggage. A man, who is mentioned in the letters as John Smith, bought a ticket from somewhere in Posey county to St. Louis and return. He arrived at St. Louis, but before he was ready to return he died. His corpse was sent back to Posey county on the return coupon of the ticket he had bought and the coupon was turned in and finally reached the auditor of the railroad who immediately wrote a letter to the conductor of the road, criticising him for allowing a corpse to ride on that kind of a ticket.

The correspondence over the point grew until the letters were piled high. The matter finally came to the hands of J. D. Wellman, assistant attorney of the road, who, in order to stop the correspondence, wrote an exhaustive treatise and opinion, which, with the files of correspondence, were referred to Attorney-General Taylor, who was formerly Mr. Wellman's chief.

Mr. Wellman says among many other things: "When Smith went to St. Louis he had a right to carry with him a certain amount of excess baggage, made up of necessary wearing apparel, etc., incident to the trip. Whether a coffin and box would be such usual necessary apparel has not, to my knowledge, been decided.

"If a man should start to die while on a trip, a coffin might well be a part of the necessary baggage. I would not like to be the grand passenger agent, however, who advertises to carry a coffin as a part of the necessary baggage over my route."

A MYSTICAL NUMBER.

OMNIPRESENT SEEMS TO BE THE FATEFUL SEVEN.

From the Biblical Story of the Creation Down It Plays a Mighty Part in Folklore, Tradition, Superstition and History.

Clean birds by sevens,
Unclean by twos,
The dove in the heavens
Is the one that I choose.

But not only do the bird auguries go by sevens; the number plays a mighty part in folklore, tradition and history. Six days made the world, and God rested on the seventh day and hallowed it. In the seventh month Noah's ark touched the ground; in seven days a dove was sent out on the face of the waters. Abraham pleaded with God seven times for Sodom's sake before God smote the city of wickedness to her undoing.

Seven days Jacob mourned for Joseph and would not be comforted; seven years and seven Jacob served for Rachel, and in Joseph's governorship of Egypt the chief butler and baker dreamed dreams wherein seven fat oxen and seven lean oxen, seven ears of full corn and seven ears of withered corn played a prominent part and foreboded the 14 years of plenty and of famine that were in store for the Land of the Two Crowns, even the land of the house of bondage, the land of Egypt.

Every seventh day the law was read to the wandering children of Israel, and Jericho, the strong city, fell, wall and tower, when seven men had paced around it for seven days.

Solomon was seven years building the splendid temple, with all its glories of gold and cedar wood, turquoise and terebinth. There were seven lamps in the tabernacle, and the golden candlestick had seven branches.

Naaman washed himself seven times in the river Jordan before the healing water cleansed him of his leprosy. The Apocalypse is full of the mystic number, and on the cross our Saviour hung for seven hours, and from "the cross our Saviour spoke seven times.

The seventh son of a seventh son is a born doctor, according to Irish belief, but he must never take money for the cures he achieves, and to insure recovery he should be sought before sunrise or after sunset on Friday. "It is manifest by experience that the seventh male child, by just order (never a veuch being born between), doth heal only with touching, through a natural gift, the king's evil; which is a special gift of God, given to kingly and queens, as daily experience doth witness." There were seven wise men and seven wonders of the world; while the ancients not only noted the importance of seven as an astronomical period, but also connected the seven planets and the seven colors.

Thus copper belonged to Venus, and the color green; lead to Saturn, and the color blue; gold and yellow to the sun, and so on.

The seven days of the week are connected with the seven pleiades, of whom the seventh is a lost star, and the seventh wave of a series is full of danger to ships, as every seventh year is to man. For seven years the mischievous sprite, Friar Rush, lived with the Seelands monks, beguiling the time by cutting oak cudgels, which, when struck on the ground, turned into soldiers armed cap-a-pie, and for seven years Prince Charming looks for his lost bride, or Cap-o'-Rushes works disguised in the kitchens of the palace, or the forsaken princess tries to climb the glass mountain which lies between her and her lover, who has drunk of the water of forgetfulness. The seven sleepers are famous, and the number seven even comes into the employ of folk medicine. Water taken from seven streams where cresses grow will cure the jaundice, and seven twigs of aspen put under the patient's pillow will recover him from paralysis, and seven leaves of ivy will bring a careless lover back to your side and keep him there, and seven corns of wheat, eaten fasting, will heal you of the falling sickness, which is epilepsy, and seven mistletoe berries put in a bag of red silk and hung round your neck will protect you from sunstroke and elf bolt and preserve your feet from blisters, however far you walk.

It is not spring until you can put your foot on seven daisies at one and the same time, and seven hairs will keep the evil eye off children, according to an old Indian superstition, only the hairs, to be of any avail, must be plucked from the tail of an elephant—a difficult, a delicate and even a dangerous proceeding. At 7 years old all cats become possessed of witch's powers, and woe betide those who ill use or frighten puss when once she has acquired power of mischief! But let this not discourage the lovers of the n. e. lived one, for—

Wherever the cat of the house don't lack For seven years blow white, blow black, The lasses of lovers shall have no lack.

Seven years of ill fortune, according to a Sicilian superstition, follow her or him who kills a cat; therefore it were well to treat your feline followers gently, even though you love them not. But I might go on till the "seventh day from Latter Lammas" and still have something to tell. So here I make an end.—Nora Hopper in Illustrated London News.

Back and Back.

The Pittsburg Chronicle tells of a woman who dearly loves to use big words, and she does not always use them correctly.

The other day a neighbor complained of incessant pain in her back, whereupon the user of big words said: "I would consult Dr. Pellets for pains in the back. He's the finest bacteriologist that I know of."

What a Little Faith Did FOR MRS. ROCKWELL.

[LETTER TO MRS. PINKHAM NO. 69,84]

"I was a great sufferer from female weakness and had no strength. It was impossible for me to attend to my household duties. I had tried everything and many doctors, but found no relief.

"My sister advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which I did; before using all of one bottle I felt better. I kept on with it and to my great surprise I am cured. All who suffer from female complaints should give it a trial."—Mrs. ROCKWELL, 1309 S. DIVISION ST., GRAND RAPIDS, MICH.

From a Grateful Newark Woman.

"When I wrote to you I was very sick, had not been well for two years. The doctors did not seem to help me, and one said I could not live three months. I had womb trouble, falling, ulcers, kidney and bladder trouble. There seemed to be such a drawing and burning pain in my bowels that I could not rest anywhere. After using Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Sanative Wash and following your advice, I feel well again and stronger than ever. My bowels feel as if they had been made over new. With many thanks for your help, I remain, L. G., 74 ANN ST., NEWARK, N. J."

HIGH TONED BOOK AGENTS.

Men Who Only Sell Volumes Worth From $50 to $500.

"There is a distinct upper class of book agents who never come in contact with the general public," remarked Mr. Charles H. Meyers. "I have been interested in art publications for a number of years and know most of the tip-top salesmen in the country. They handle books that range from $50 to $500 in price and only call on people who figure on certain select lists. These lists are the result of the cullings of years, and, combined, they represent nearly all of the high class book buyers of the United States. Each publishing house has its own collection of names, and they are valued highly.

"I call to mind one firm that failed and went out of business several years ago and its roster of buyers was considered its very best asset. It was purchased for something like $5,000. The class of books handled by the agents to whom I refer would greatly astonish the everyday patron of the shops. They are printed in very limited editions, and every refinement of mechanical art is lavished on their preparation. Sometimes the edition numbers only 25 or 30, and as soon as it is off the press the type is taken down and distributed. The illustrations are frequently water color paintings or artists' proofs of etchings, and it is quite common for the vignette letters to be tinted by hand.

"Such books are never advertised, but are easily disposed of to the inner circle of rich connoisseurs. The agents who take the orders are the princes of the business. I know one who makes nearly $10,000 a year, and they are nearly all well to do. They are continually on the go, but if you were to encounter one of them at a hotel the chances are you would never guess his vocation. What are the topics of the books they sell? Oh! They range from Shakespeare's comedies to Walton's complete angler—a little of everything."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

CLEVER MILITARY TRICK.

The Strategem by Which Sir Francis Vere Defeated the Spanish.

When Philip II debated the question of coercing with fire and sword the Dutchman, who did not like the taxes which they themselves did not vote, the Duke of Alva counseled violent measures, for in his eyes the rebels were only "men of butter." Nevertheless he found that these men, so fond of cows and hens, could hold his veterans at bay, finally overcome them in the field, and after 80 years leave poor Spain "a broken backed tiger."

Indeed in time of war country folk with baskets of eggs and butter excited no suspicion even to alert sentinels. Taking advantage of this fact, Sir Francis Vere determined to recapture from the Spaniards the Zutphen sconces, or forts, by a stratagem. In 1591 he picked out some lusty and handsome young soldiers and dressed most of them like the Gelderland egg women and the rest as Boers. With bundles of vegetables, baskets of eggs and butter, but also with daggers and pistols inside their clothes, they were ferried across the river by twos and threes. They sat near the gate of the fort being already, at the break of day, chatting and gesticulating, as if in some tremendous argument about the rise or fall of market prices.

Then, according to arrangement, Vere sent some cavalry forward, as if approaching, and the pretended country people ran in feigned terror toward the fort. The gates were at once thrown open to receive them. They all streamed in, threw off their disguises, and in a few minutes were in possession of the forts of the town, where the gallant Sir Philip Sidney afterward lost his life by being more rash and less shrewd than the veteran Vere.—Harper's Bazar.

Harpers.

The practical value of Harper's Bazar cannot be better illustrated than by a mention of the valuable series of articles appearing at present. "Home Talks on Millinery," by Mrs. James M. Bird, and "Home Dress-making," by Julia K. McDougall, will be very helpful to every woman who may desire to trim a bonnet or make a gown for herself. The summer number of the Bazar are also notable for a great variety of interesting short stories.

In 1894 General Frederick Funston the famous hero of the Twentieth Kansas Volunteer Infantry, made a journey of several hundred miles to visit the whalers of the ice-floes about Herschel Island. The story of his experience as he tells it in the July number of Harper's Round Table, shows that the dauntless Western colonel, besides being a good fighter, is a very entertaining writer.

One of the features of Literature during the next few weeks will be reviews of the best of the mass of light fiction that always heralds the opening of the summer season. No other periodical is so well qualified to give accurate and unbiased judgment on novels and stories. It is also announced that William Dean Howells will contribute a discussion of Ibsen's celebrated play, "Ghosts."

Sunday Harvesters.

It is reported that a large amount of wheat was cut in this county Sunday, but excursionists who went to Indianapolis say that the farmers along the J. M. & I. north of Jonesville were laying off as is their custom on the Sabbath day. They will doubtless be able to care for their wheat crop just as well as if they had harvested Sunday.

D. H. Brown and wife spent Sunday with their son Emmon, of Indianapolis, who provided a nice rig and drove them over the city past the residences of Senator Fairbanks and General Harrison, also to the various asylums and other places of interest. The time was pleasantly spent.
